Winter Teva Mountain Games - February 2012

Winter in the Rockies will never be the same as professional and amateur athletes converge on the mountains and villages of Vail for a celebration of adventure sports, music, art and the great outdoors. The Winter Teva Mountain Games will dangle a $60,000 purse in front of a variety of pro and amateur winter athletes who will pedal, run, climb and frolic in Vail from February 9th to 12th, 2012.

The Teva Winter Mountain Games will feature mountain bikers going big on a snow ramp at night, ice climbers on a mixed route, Nordic and telemark skiing racers, a 10K snowshoe race, a mountaineering race that joins the state's U.S. Ski Mountaineering Association's COSMIC race series, slalom snow bike racing and cyclocross in an emphatically different winter contest. The winter festival in Vail will come to life with free concerts, films, a photo competition, an interactive expo area, demo events and of course - dogs. For more information on activities and event during the Winter Teva Mountain Games go to www.TevaMountainGames.com.

I think it's safe to say the winter ski season has begun!

We had an early snow fall again, with 11 inches reported on top of Vail Mountain.

So get out your skis and boards and gear up!

"Nothing erases unpleasant thoughts more effectively than concentration on pleasant ones."
